

PA Ducks Unlimited Legacy Greenwing Program
“The Akeley Swamp Project”

The Akeley Swamp wetland complex is located on State Game Land 282, in Pine Grove Township, Warren County Pennsylvania.

In partnership with the PA Game Commission, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Warren County Council of Sportsman’s Club and Ducks Unlimited the restoration of this 168-acre site has Become a reality.

PA Ducks Unlimited has picked this location to become the next Greenwing Legacy dedication site. The next 100 Greenwing Legacy’s will be recognized with a special dedication and each member will have their name placed on a plaque commemorating the occasion.

Our youth are the Future of Ducks Unlimited!

Legacy Greenwing (17 years or younger)

One-time contribution of $200 receives:

- Membership Card & Decals (one duck head and one DU shield)
- 5.5” x 8.5” certificate
- 4 issues per year of the Puddler magazine for members 11 years and younger.
- Legacy Greenwing lapel pin, the DU Annual Report with a special listing in the Greenwing section.
- 6 issues of the Ducks Unlimited Magazine for members 12 –21 years of age,

Plus. Upon turning 18, you are considered an adult member and will continue to receive the Ducks Unlimited magazine until age 21.

Puddler magazine is a children’s magazine with a critical mission-to educate our youth about the importance of wetlands and the many species of wildlife that depend upon these natural habitats for their survival.

Published quarterly for children under the age of 12, Puddler offers a great way for kids to learn about wildlife, general ecology, ecosystems and animal behavior. It includes illustrated stories and wildlife adventures, animal folklore and tales, quizzes, puzzles, and other interactive features designed to entertain, stimulate curiosity, and reinforced learning.
